

Am Lit Vocabulary Assignment
Lesson Eleven

Name _____

Draw a picture of someone who is impotent.

Write out an imprecation for something you dislike.

Who do you know that is jocular? Write a short description of that person and explain their jocular qualities.

Where can we find an example of juxtaposition in our reading? Explain and give where we find it.

What class might you discuss kinetics in? Why would you discuss it? Explain.

Draw a labyrinth for your teacher to solve.

Am Lit Vocabulary Assignment
Lesson Eleven

Name _____

What in your life has happened to you that you might consider kismet? You cannot say “I don’t know,” or “nothing” think of something.

Draw a scene where a knell might be heard.

What might make someone lachrymose? Why might they be that way? Explain the situation.

Write an example of a laconic speech that Mr. Belcher might give to motivate you.

Draw something that is lambent.

Am Lit Vocabulary Assignment
Lesson Eleven

Name _____

When do you feel languid? What do you do when you feel that way?

Would the Puritans condone lasciviousness? Why or why not? Would the Age of Reason thinkers condone it? Why or why not?

Write a description of someone who is a libertine.

Pick 10 of the 15 words and write an ANTONYM for those words.

Draw someone who is a legerdemain.